

Why private dog walks?

*Private walks are good for new puppies that can't socialize for a month with other dogs and is the perfect environment to do basic training with them. *Private walks are good for dogs with particular needs.